September 30—October 1 Rockingham County Fairgrounds, Harrisonburg, VA

The Countdown is on—only 34 days left until the Relief Sale begins!

Excitement is building for the relief sale. What do you still need to know? Check out the important information below!

- Reserved seating for the auction is available—only $12. New this year—more comfy padded seats! Don't miss out!
- Sporting Clay Tournament—Play on a 5 acre course at The Flying Rabbit to benefit the Relief Sale. Registration form is available on the sale website.
- ATM services will be available for you to get cash. It will be located near where you get your auction bidder number.
- Saturday morning parking—The back gate entrance to the fairgrounds will be closed on Saturday morning from 7:45-9:00 AM, during the Run/Walk for Relief.
- Penny Power Coins—Keep collecting them! Only a few weeks left. Drop off your jugs on Fri. night at the Penny Power table in the auction building or before 9:00 AM on Sat. morning.
- Sponsorship opportunities—It's not too late to be a sponsor for the sale! Your business will receive recognition on the website, during the auction, at special events, or in newsletters. Contact Sherrill (information is at the bottom of this newsletter).

Hurry—finish making, crafting, and gathering your items to donate to the auction!

Donation forms need to be submitted by Sept. 15 in order to be included in pre-sale publicity. More quilts, art, wood items, theme baskets, etc. are still needed.

Rumor has it that the world's hottest pepper will be auctioned off! Stay tuned for more details.
